

Acting for The Camera

Sundays, 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM

March 10, 17, 24, 31, April 7, 14, 21

Class Description: Develop acting skills and increase your confidence in front of the camera in this challenging workshop which combines classes, exercises and scene work to enhance your experience in the form. Under the guidance of veteran actor and director John B. Lowe, you'll explore the technical and creative aspects of acting on camera including: filmmaking, preparation, performance, auditions, set etiquette, continuity and more.

Instructor Bio: John B. Lowe is an actor, director and filmmaker who has been working in theatre, film and television for 35 years. He has appeared in many feature films and TV movies with a long list of appearances on Canadian and American TV shows as a regular, recurring or guest performer. John B has produced, written, and directed several award-winning short films and is developing new film and video projects from his company Broccolo Creative. John B. is also an accomplished theatre actor and director. He has appeared on numerous stages across Canada and has produced and directed many independent theatre projects. John B has been teaching emerging and established professional actors since 1989. He teaches Screen Acting at the University of Winnipeg and trains and coaches actors for Broccolo Creative, specializing in Acting for the Camera.

Website: www.broccolocreative.com

IMDb: <https://www.imdb.com/name/nm0522979/>

Funded by the Government of Canada's Community Services Recovery Fund

Canada

THE ABBY